

Close contact to sick person prior to offshore travel (no own symptoms)

It is expected that general recommendations and special orders from the authorities and municipal infection detection teams will be followed

